

BUST CARD

You have the right to free legal advice at the police station.

Duty solicitors are often not protest specialists, we recommend you ask the police to contact one of the following:-

Hodge Jones and Allen 0844 848 0222

Robert Lizar Solicitors 0161 227 7777

Out of hours: 07900 998 999

John Briant at Rose Court Chambers - 07870 597888

You have the right to have someone informed of your arrest. To help facilitate police station support, you should inform the LAP Legal Back-office once you arrive at a police station:

LAP Legal Back-office, Georgie Smith: 0345-4588-362

You are also entitled to an interpreter if English is not your first language.

If you are under 18, an appropriate adult should be called.

LEGAL GUIDANCE

- ✓ No Comment to all questions from police, even during interviews and casual chats.
- ✓ No Personal Details You don't have to give details when you are arrested.
Typically, people give their details when being checked in at the custody desk.
- ✓ No Duty Solicitor. Use one of our recommended solicitors with protest experience.
- ✓ No Caution. Cautions are an admission of guilt. Discuss the offer with a lawyer experienced in protest law where possible.
- ✓ Under What Power? Ask "What power?" to challenge a police officer to act lawfully.

Our Legal Observers are volunteers who gather evidence on behalf of anyone arrested and act to counter police intimidation and misbehaviour.
